Ms. Rosalind Hall, a native of Wales, U.K., came to Utah in 1989 to pursue post-graduate studies in choral conducting at Brigham Young University. Her British training was at London's Royal Academy of Music and Edinburgh and London Universities. Before returning to teach at BYU in 1999, she spent seven years at the Waterford School, where she chaired the music department, directed the choral program, and played a key role in developing the Waterford Fine Arts Academy. She is renowned for her innovative and vivacious approach to vocal and rehearsal technique.

Education: Licentiate of the Royal Academy of Music, Voice, 1976. Associate of the London College of Music, piano, 1977. BM, Royal Academy of Music, London, 1977. Postgraduate Music Teacher's Certificate, London University, 1978. MM, Choral Conducting, Brigham Young University, 1993.

Ms. Judith Willoughby is the Wanda L. Bass Professor of Conducting and Choral Music Education at Oklahoma City University and Artistic Director of the Youth Choral Program of the Canterbury Choral Society. At OCU, she conducts Ad Astra Women's Chorus, University Singers and teaches courses in music education. Professor Willoughby was inducted, as a National Arts Associate, into the Alpha Zeta chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, at Oklahoma City University in April 2008. As a guest conductor, clinician and conference headliner, Willoughby has lead choruses and orchestras in the world's major concert halls in North America, Europe, the Caribbean, Australia and Asia. Highlights of her 2008-2009 season include concerts at Avery Fisher Hall, Lincoln Center, New York City and also Yale University. She was the headliner for the inaugural 2009 Charleston International Festival of Chorus. Willoughby has been an active honor choir conductor for the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), conducting honor choruses for one national, five divisional and numerous state conventions. She has been privileged to conduct forty-four all state choruses in the United States. Willoughby served on the board of Chorus America for nine years, including two terms as secretary, and has been active on that organization's conducting taskforce where she co-developed two national choral/orchestral conducting master classes and served as faculty on several others. She was state president for Pennsylvania's ACDA, the Pennsylvania Collegiate Choral Association and Pennsylvania Presenters. Professor Willoughby, a committed choral music educator who began her career in the Philadelphia (PA) public schools, founded the Temple University Children's Choir in 1991, leading that ensemble to international prominence. Highlights of the choir's work, during her tenure included many appearances with the Philadelphia Orchestra, international performances, appearances at national and regional meetings of the American Choral Directors Association and the Music Educators National Conference, recordings for the 2000 edition of the Silver Burdett Music Series, and appearances at the Oregon Bach Festival with Helmut Rilling. A noted pedagogue, Judith Willoughby taught in the Summer Institute programs of Eastman's School of Music and Westminster Choir College. During her years in Chicago, as a member of the conducting and music education faculty at Northwestern University, she was also choral director for Chicago's Museum of Contemporary Art during its recreation of Dutch choreographer Beppie Blankert's dance, Odyssey, to the music of Louis Andriessen. She was also the first (and only) female invited to conduct the William Ferris Chorale on a regular subscription concert. Professor Willoughby is a graduate of Temple (MMus) and Northwestern (BMus) Universities and a student of Natalie Hinderas (piano), Elaine Brown (choral conducting) and William Smith and Max Rudolph (instrumental conducting). Her interest in public policy's intersection with arts education and performance has resulted in her continuing service on national arts panels in the public sector, national foundations in the private sector as well as regional and state arts agencies. Willoughby edits a choral series published by Alliance Music, has contributed to articles published in ACDA's Choral Journal, wrote a chapter for The Choral Director's Cookbook published by Meredith Music, was on the editorial board for two Chorus America publications: Leading the Successful Chorus and Conductors Count: What Chorus Boards, Music Directors and Administrators Need to Know, and she recently authored a chapter in Way Over in Beulah Land: Understanding and Performing the Negro Spiritual, by Dr. Andre Thomas, which was published in 2007 by Heritage Music Press.

Mr. Bruce Rogers is the Director of Choral Activities at Mt. San Antonio College, in Walnut, California. In this role, he oversees the department's various vocal and choral programs, which span the entire spectrum of music—from classical to jazz. He personally directs Mt. San Antonio College's award-winning Chamber Singers and the elite vocal jazz ensemble, Singcopation. Choirs under his direction have achieved top ranking in national and international competitions throughout the world, including performances in Concert Halls throughout the United States, Canada, Australia, China, Scotland, Wales, England, France, Italy, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Bulgaria, and the Czech Republic. Mr. Rogers' choirs have had the honor of performing at eight California State Conventions, nine American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) Regional and National Conventions as well as performing at three International Association of Jazz Educators (IAJE) National Conventions. In the year 2001, Mr. Rogers became the first choral director in United States history to have two different choirs perform at both the IAJE National Convention and the ACDA National Convention, and in 2005, he achieved this special honor once again. Mr. Rogers' most recent guest conducting ventures outside of the United States, includes conducting at the "AMIS International Honor Band and Choral Festival" hosted by the International School at The Hague, in the Netherlands, conducting the music of Franz Joseph Haydn in Vienna and Budapest with a Festival Choir and Orchestra honoring the 200th Anniversary of Haydn's death, and was the headline clinician and guest conductor at the "Australian National Choral Association" (ANCA) Convention in Port Macquarie, Australia. He has guest conducted the New York Chamber Orchestra and Festival Chorus at Carnegie Hall on five different occasions and has performed by special invitation at Lincoln Center. In 2007, Professor Rogers was invited to conduct the ACDA National Two-Year College Honor Choir at the ACDA National Convention in Miami, Florida. Mr. Rogers has presented lectures, adjudicated, or conducted All-State and Collegiate Honor Choirs in twenty-one states, Canada, Austria, Hungary, Australia, and the Netherlands. For his many achievements, Mt. SAC presented Professor Rogers with its prestigious "Faculty Member of the Year" award, the Upland Community Foundation honored him as a recipient of their 2010 "Spotlight Award" for Outstanding Educator, and in 2013 he was awarded the "CMEA Pearson-Silver Burdett Choral Educator Award" honoring excellence in choral education and performance. He has also signed with Gentry Music to publish the "Bruce Rogers Choral Series," which strives to discover challenging new choral works from various countries and languages.
